

Approach to Risk Management Quiz

Read through the questions and place your response (A, B or C) in the box on the right hand side.

1.	What is the purpose of risk management?
A	To eliminate, avoid and remove all risks.
B	To ensure that the organisation is 'covered' for any potential harm.
C	To reduce or remove potential risk factors.

2.	Which of these areas could organisations potentially be liable for?
A	Negligence.
B	Negligence, vicarious liability, employment rights of volunteers.
C	Negligence, vicarious liability.

3.	Organisations carry more risk because they involve volunteers.
A	True.
B	False.
C	Possibly – depending on the activity.

4.	What is the best method for approaching risk management in volunteering?
A	To identify who is going to be responsible, to develop policies and to have effective recruitment and screening procedures.
B	To carry out an annual risk management appraisal.
C	To ensure that all policies and procedures are kept up to date and that volunteers are informed.

5.	All potential liability with involving volunteers could be transferred elsewhere by:
A	Arranging adequate insurance.
B	It couldn't completely be transferred elsewhere.
C	Getting volunteers to sign disclaimers for risky activities.	