There are several ways of spelling the long 'e' sound. Two ways are as in the words 'weed' and 'beat'. There are other ways of spelling this sound.

Circle all the words in this passage containing the long 'e' sound. The first one has been done for you.

I feel terrible at work if I get something wrong,
even though I have a very reasonable boss.

Ann expects me to get things started in the mornings.

This means getting to work early so I can meet the first people to arrive. If someone is late or phones in because they are ill, I have to make a brief record on a piece of paper. I was not certain about having a woman in charge, but she has proved to be a real asset.

Copy these sentences as accurately as you can on to another piece of paper.

Whenever we go to Spain, we enjoy the sun, the food and the nightlife. Ibiza is my favourite destination, though I've only been there once. My sister is frightened of flying so she has not ventured away from Britain for her holidays. She says she still manages to have fun.

Your tutor will read you a short passage. Your tutor will then read it again slowly. Write the passage down.
