

Capturing the 'Learner Voice' Inter-work experience case study

Orbital Radio, web based radio working with students from Epinay Business and Enterprise School

Programme delivery

5 x 1 hour sessions – Wednesdays 1pm-2pm

Programme content

Session 1

Introduction to web based radio – mini survey plus interview

- Why have community radio
- An understanding of community
- Discuss Orbital radio

Session 2

Research web based radio stations – what is interesting, their content, age interest

- make lists of the good parts of the contents

Session 3

Programme planning – use info from magazines, newspapers, Orbital's proposals

- draw up a suggested programme for a week day
- draw up a suggested programme for a weekend
- script writing
-

Session 4

Advertising – the power of advertising, posters, jingles etc

Session 5

Visits to regional radio broadcasting studios.

Other areas to be considered depending upon interest levels etc, equipment, interview techniques,

Equipment needed:

Access to internet and printers

File and plastic pockets for students

Pens paper etc