

Learning Disability Traineeships

The Project is a partnership between:

Central Manchester University Hospitals NHS
NHS Foundation Trust

Learning Disability Traineeships is an employment based education programme for young people with a learning disability, based at Central Manchester University Hospitals Trust.

Overview:

- Learners are called 'Trainees' as they are training to do real jobs within the Hospital.
- 10 trainees are offered places on the Project.
- They work towards an Entry 3 Certificate.
- Over the year, trainees get to try out 3 different jobs within the hospital.
- They attend for 4 days per week Monday-Thursday.

Our goal is paid work.
