

Climate Week Celebration

Monday 12th March 2012

at the Redbridge Institute

Gearies Centre, Gaysham Avenue, Gants Hill, IG2 6TD
Tel. 020 8550 2398

Climate Week is Britain's biggest climate change campaign, inspiring a new wave of action to create a sustainable future.

Redbridge Institute invites you to join us in marking the start of Climate Week

Come along and find out more about energy saving, water saving, Fairtrade and how you can be green and save money, at the Institute and at home.

What's on?

- 10am-5pm Book Swap! Bring your unwanted books (including children's books!) in throughout the day and swap them for another. Students swap the first book for free, after that, please donate 50p per book - all donations will go to the "Target Ovarian Cancer" charity
- 11.15- 11.45am Come and meet local Bangla writer - Alif Uddin
- From 12.00noon Come and talk to Redbridge Borough Council officers about recycling, composting and reusable nappies.
- 12.00noon Award Presentations for the winners of the environmental competition and envirochampions.
- 12.15pm Readings by students of the Creative Writing course
- 4.00-5.30pm Bring the family! Come and get creative with our family learning activities. Make Art from recycled material and Grow your own food! (All children must be accompanied by an adult)