

Sustainability at SRC

Nicola Errington
Deputy Head of Faculty –
Enterprise and Community Development

Sustainability at SRC

- Sustainability Enterprise Fair
 - Recycling
 - Self-sufficiency
 - Healthy eating
 - Locally sourced products/services
 - Energy efficient
 - Environmentally friendly

Sustainability at SRC

- The purpose of the Fairs
 - Promote enterprise and enterprising skills
 - Raise awareness of sustainability across the College community

Sustainability at SRC

- How did it work?
 - Business Studies event management team
 - Competition
 - Supported by Stockton Borough Council
 - Involved all curriculum areas
 - 1st event in College and 2nd event in Stockton High Street

Sustainability at SRC

- ◉ Recycled jewellery
- ◉ Recycled clothing
- ◉ Gifts – cards, fashion and home accessories from recycled materials
- ◉ Computer parts
- ◉ Smoothie maker
- ◉ Plants and vegetables
- ◉ Bird boxes, planters

Sustainability at SRC

- Benefits
 - Learners are more aware of sustainability issues
 - Raising awareness to the wider College community and Stockton community
 - Combining with enterprise enables learners to broaden their opportunities and use skills they've learnt at College

Sustainability at SRC

- Lessons learnt
 - Combine with learning about sustainability
 - 'Practice what we preach'
 - Tighten up on the rules for the competition
 - Extend to event to staff and learner's families

Sustainability at SRC

Sustainability at SRC

Sustainability at SRC

Sustainability at SRC

Sustainability at SRC

Sustainability at SRC

Sustainability at SRC

Sustainability at SRC

Sustainability at SRC

Sustainability at SRC

Sustainability at SRC

